Grammar Practice

Talk about contractions. Practice saying these contractions with your teacher.

Sometimes, we use a short form of two words. These are contractions. Look at the examples. We can use contractions when we describe personalities.

Example: I am happy. = I'm happy. She is funny. = She's funny.

Singular		Plural
I am	I'm	We are	We're
You are	You're	You are	You're
He is/ She is/ It is	He's/ She's/ It's	They are	They're

Practice using contractions:

I'm _____.

You're _____.

He's _____.

We're _____.

Words to use:
friendly
funny kind happy
shy loud

Grammar Practice Continued

Choose the correct contraction for each sentence.

I like Lisa. _____ friendly.

You always tell great jokes. _____ funny.

You and I will see a movie. _____ going to the movies.

Bianca and Claire love to help people. _____ very kind.

Derek works at a school. _____ a teacher.

I smile and laugh a lot. _____ a happy person.

I'm	You're	We're	They're	He's	She's

Prefixes

Talk about the words in the boxes and practice using them in sentences.

In English, adding un, makes the word opposite. Compare the words in the boxes. Make sentences using them.

A.	B.
friendly	unfriendly
kind	unkind
happy	unhappy

Example: Friendly people are happy and kind. Unfriendly people are usually not kind.

Are you friendly or unfriendly? Give an example.

I am _____ because I _____.

Discussion

What kind of personality do your parents have? Are they the same or very different?

Example: My mother is very friendly and kind. My father is funny. They are different because my mom is serious.

My mother/father is _____.
